A December Dance.

A dance is to be given on Saturday, December 7, at 8 o'clock, by the purchase division of the bureau of supplies and accounts, Navy Department, at Annapolis.

A number of attractive special features have been arranged, in addition to the dancing program, by the committee in charge of the affair. There will be sung for the first time in public a snappy victory song by the composer, one of the officers in the bureau, and selections from a versatile entertainer, who was formerly a theatrical star, but for the past year has been engaged in helping the Supply Corps of the Navy to purchase material to win the war. A jazz band will furnish the music throughout the evening.

The committee in charge of the affair is composed of Miss Gaffney, contract section; Miss Montgomery, open purchase section; Miss Hayden, inland traffic division; Miss Robbins, disbursing division; Miss Manning, supply division; Mr. Foss, purchase division; Mr. Shotwell, allotment division; Mr. Lawson, purchase division; Mr. Graham, fuel and logistics division, and Mr. Foster, accounting division.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Harris announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Irma Harris, and Mr. W. O. Husted, U. S. A., of Pittsburgh, Pa. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. James Shera Montgomery of Calvary M. E. Church Saturday afternoon, November 9, at 2:30 o'clock. The bride's gown was of deep georgette crepe, embroidered in gold and jet. Her corsage bouquet was of La France roses. The bride was among the first to answer the call for war workers enlisting in the Navy. Mr. Husted is the son of the late Mr. Husted of Pittsburgh, Pa., and volunteered his service in the United States Army at the beginning of the war. He is well known in Washington and Pittsburgh, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Husted left later for Pittsburgh.

Mr. John Quincy Williams, who has just returned from France; Mrs. Williams and their little son have come to visit his parents in Smithville, Ga. They will return December 2.

Mrs. C. E. Simonds and daughter entertained some of the wounded soldiers from Walter Reed Hospital on Wednesday evening. Some very interesting stories were told of their service abroad.
